

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| Name of Media: | Times of India |
| Country of Media: | India |
| Date of Article: | 20 November 2010 |
| Author: | - |
| Title: | - |
| Project: | 9 th Asia-Europe Classroom Network Conference 12 – 16 November 2010, Gurgaon, NCR of Delhi, India |

St Mark's Sr Sec School, Meera Bagh hosted the 9th AEC-NET Conference from November 12-16. The chief guest for the evening was Carolyn Deshmukh, Director, (SE&L), MHRD while the special guests were Clemens Kroll, Cultural Counsellor, Federal Republic of Germany; Shagun Mehrotra, Programme Head (Education), European Union and the Third Secretary with The Embassy of Indonesia, New Delhi. The evening saw performances from the students of the host school. It was a cultural bonanza for the 100 delegates from all over Asia and Europe. The conference saw eminent speakers Rolando In-ciong, ASEAN Institute of Bio Diversity, Aarti Khosla, WWF, India and Livleen Kahlon, TERI India. All the three speakers spoke on climate change and bio diversity loss and how can schools, educators and students work together to tackle the issue. The 100 odd delegates also visited the host school, St Mark's Sr Sec Public School, Meera Bagh and St Mark's Girls School. They were also impressed by Indian Education system.

The farewell dinner was graced by retd Justice of India, Shamim and Ranjana Saikia, TERI. The awardees were awarded their merit certificates while the other delegates were given certificate of participation. The four-day event which endorsed the belief that educators play a big role in the grooming of students. Zhang Hong Tie, Director, People to People Exchange aptly quotes, "AEC tries to gather schools and share experiences in terms of methodologies, progress and co-exist in a diverse world". School principal Anjali Aggarwal said that the students played a vital role in making the conference a success.