

Prinsesse Marie åbner klimakonference

SØNDERBORG - 27. oktober 2009 12:54

I dag deltog Prinsesse Marie i åbningen af den ottende Asian-Europe Classroom Network Conference i Sønderborg.

Mandag aften var der officiel velkomstmiddag i Riddersalen på Sønderborg Slot. Ved velkomstmiddagen blev deltagerne budt velkommen af bl.a. borgmester Jan Prokopek Jensen. Også Undervisningsminister Bertel Haarder deltog i velkomstmiddagen.

Ved ankomsten til Hotel Comwell i Sønderborg tirsdag morgen fik Prinsesse Marie overrakt en buket blomster af Signe Brodersen fra 5.b. på Hørup Centralskole.

- Det er et stort privilegium for mig, at få lov til at deltage i åbningen af denne konference. Det gennemgående tema for dette års konference er klima og bæredygtighed. Et meget relevant tema på grund af klimatopmødet i København til december, sagde Prinsesse Marie på talerstolen.

.....

(translated article)

Prinsesse Marie inaugurates climate conference

SØNDERBORG - 27. oktober 2009 12:54

Today, Princess Marie inaugurated the eighth Asian- European Classroom Network Conference in Sønderborg.

The official welcome dinner took place on Monday evening in the Knights Hall at Sønderborg Castle, where the participants were welcomed by the mayor, Jan Prokopek Jensen. The Minister of Education, Bertel Haarder was also present.

On arrival at Hotel Comwell in Sønderborg on Tuesday morning, Princess Marie was handed a bouquet of flowers by Signe Brodersen from grade 5.b. at Hørup Central School.

“It is a great privilege for me to be allowed to take part in opening this conference. The general topic for the conference of this year is climate and sustainability. It is a very relevant topic because of the climate summit meeting in Copenhagen in December,” said Princess Marie from the rostrum.